

HIBI COLLECTION
design | Robert Marinelli

RM ROBERT MARINELLI

A prolific American Designer with multidisciplinary studios in New York and Los Angeles, Marinelli's work combines contemporary minimalism with materials and finishes that juxtapose and highlight his disparate artistic inspirations.

Inspired by Japan crackled wares or hibi-yaki, created by the shrinkage rate between the clay and glaze and volcanic fissures or cracks in the ground caused as a result of heat and tension, these flaws or fractured quality is a distinctive aesthetic feature which is offset by the smooth, weathered surfaces.

Each piece in the Hibi collection possesses a distinctive vocabulary, reflecting the evocative inspiration and deep connection to nature.
